Employees from The FootBridge Companies assist with WEEI/NESN Jimmy Fund Radio-Telethon
Staffing firm helps to raise more than $2.3 million for Dana Farber Cancer Institute

Andover, MA - August 29, 2005 - The FootBridge Companies announced today they recently answered telephones at the WEEI/NESN Jimmy Fund Radio-Telethon held on August 26 at Fenway Park in Boston in support of Dana Farber Cancer Institute.

"We had a dozen employees volunteer their time to support this cause," said Rich O'Donnell, FootBridge co-founder and president. "It was a wonderful day to help out this important organization. This event is something we will continue to be a part of in years to come."

Lauren Nash, senior assistant, Special Events for the Division of Development and The Jimmy Fund at Dana-Farber Cancer Institute, added "We raised over $2.3 Million, thanks in no small part to our dedicated team of staff and volunteers...your excitement and positive attitudes were incredible. We hope to see you next year!"
